National Resource Center for Recruitment and Retention of Foster and Adoptive Parents at AdoptUsKids (NRCRRFAP)

<http://www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/cb/tta/nrcrrfap.htm>

The Collaboration to AdoptUsKids is a project of the Children’s Bureau. In October, 2002, the U. S. Children’s Bureau contracted with the Adoption Exchange Association and its partners to devise and implement a national adoptive family recruitment and retention strategy, operate the AdoptUsKids.org website, encourage and enhance adoptive family support organizations and conduct a variety of adoption research projects. The Promising Approaches and Resources page offers information about emerging ideas and fieldwork.

Teaching-Family Association

The Teaching-Family Model is implemented in group homes, foster care settings, home-based services, psychiatric residential settings and alternative school classrooms.
